Guangdong haolix Construction Machinery Co., Ltd

COMPANY INTRODUCTION

Established in 21st century,Guangdong Haolixin Construction Machinery Co.,Ltd is located at Shijie town , dongguan city, guangdong province, with easy transportation. We are a modern enterprise specialized in R&D, production, sales and service of all kinds of mechanical filters.

We devote ourselves to developing various filters upon the market and client needs and introduce automatic production line and material.With the quality-oriented principle,we produce all the products strictly according to the quality management system,keep improving,and carry out the modern advanced management philosophy to serve our customer and create benefits.

Our products:air filter, oil filter ,diesel filter,pump oil filter,fuel water separator filter, precision filter , spray painting dust recycling filter, air cleaning filter.

Application field:mechanical engineer,industrial machinery,car,diesel generator, forklift, air compressor, slow silk wire cutter, electric spark machine and environmental protection purification system...

We keep on innovation and improvement, try to provide high quality products with favorable price,serve our customers with heart and soul,provide service timely,and develop products advantage.Benefits is based on management,quality is based on processing. Our ultimate goal is customer satisfaction.

Choose filter,choose HAOLIXIN! High quality,favorable price,your best choice!We will serve you with constant hardworking.

Dear friends,we will focus on the technology to satisfy our customers and contribute to the new and fresh living space.Wish we will bring benefits to you and create a bright future together!
